Protector

Range Day Bundle

The 1750 Protector Long Case is the ideal solution to hold your guns and gear, whether you are going to the range or out to hunt. The recently updated case now features improved ergonomic over-molded handles and a 2” cored latch. The 1750 Protector case is watertight, crushproof, and dustproof, designed to withstand the demands of any range day.
The EZ-Click MOLLE Panels allows you to outfit your case for any situation. Keep your panels outfitted, so that you can easily swap them out for the mission at hand. These panels easily install in the lid of the 1750 Protector Case for increased customization and loadout options.
