CRDBAG

Half Brick

The CRDBAG Brick Series is designed to bring smart organization to professionals in film, photography, and technical fields. Built with durable 900D nylon and TPU/Mesh laminate, these pouches are made to handle tough environments while keeping your gear protected, visible, and easy to access. The Full Brick is sized to fit perfectly in carry-on hard cases, making it ideal for travel. Half Bricks offer flexible configuration options to maximize storage efficiency inside any setup. Each pouch is equipped with water-resistant YKK Aquaguard zippers, TPU tabs, clear TPU windows for use with CRDTABS, and Velcro loops for patches—offering fast, personalized access to your essential equipment.
Whether you're on location or in transit, the CRDBAG Brick Series keeps your gear secure, organized, and ready when you need it.
