CRDBAG

Y-Wrap Large

Experience the future of equipment protection with the CRDBAG Y-WRAP, a revolutionary solution designed to replace traditional lens wraps with superior flexibility, protection, and convenience. Featuring a patent-pending design, the Y-WRAP is engineered to safeguard your lenses and gear with a unique combination of protective padded microfiber and durable ripstop nylon. The integrated spandex webbing prevents fallout, keeping your valuable equipment secure even during transport.
Designed for efficiency, the Y-WRAP includes a labeling window and a loop strip, making it fully compatible with CRDTABS and our range of patches for optimal organization and quick identification. The elastic cord locking system ensures a snug fit, while easy folding instructions simplify storage when not in use. Whether you're on the move or working on set, the Y-WRAP delivers peace of mind, ensuring your gear is always protected and accessible.
The CRDBAG Y-WRAP is the ultimate solution for professionals seeking unmatched protection, organization, and ease of use for their valuable equipment.
