Protector Mobility Kit

Your schedule is relentless, and so is the terrain. From rain-slick city pavements to loose mountain scree, every transfer is a chance for costly damage or delay. That’s why the Protector Mobility Kit fuses Peli’s battle-proven 1510 Protector Case with the RucPac Pro Hardcase harness, turning a rock-solid roller into a hands-free pack in seconds. Protect vital cameras, drones and sensors inside an IP67 fortress, then shoulder the load and push on, no repacking, no compromises, just seamless movement from van to summit and back again.

For Professionals Who Refuse “What If?”

A single drop can shatter lenses, corrupt data and sink a shoot. The 1510 Protector Case shrugs off shock, dust and full submersion, so your kit arrives exactly as packed, ready to capture the first take, not the reshoot.

Mobility Without Compromise

Towing a roller over rubble wastes time and saps energy. Clip on the RucPac Pro Hardcase and the 1510 rides like a balanced backpack, its weight transferred to your hips while your hands stay free for tripods, cables or a last-minute client call.

Buy Once, Rely Always

Both components carry Peli’s legendary lifetime guarantee, built to outlast harsh airlines, remote expeditions and long days on set. Invest now, protect every job to come, because failure isn’t in the budget.

Your gear. Shielded. Carried. Ready.

Included:

• Peli 1510 Protector Case (Black – No Foam)
• RucPac Pro Hardcase Backpack Harness

Peli 1510 Protector Case

Airline carry-on compliant yet Mil-Spec tough, the 1510 seals out water, dust and impact. Smooth roller wheels, a retractable handle and an automatic pressure valve make travel painless, while its 514 × 288 × 191 mm interior swallows pro camera bodies, lenses or field tools with room to spare.

RucPac Pro Hardcase

A premium backpack-conversion kit with height-adjustable shoulder straps, ventilated back panel and supportive waist belt. Opens fully while attached, folds flat inside the lid when not in use, and is purpose-built for the 1510 to deliver true grab-and-go versatility.
